I can be all I want to be
Set my sights as far and wide
As life will let me see

And I'll go where I want to go
Fly away and touch the sky
And sail the stormy seas

CH I've seen those dreams before
They came right to my door
It's hard to find a way
Watched you grow each day
Make those same mistakes
How can I tell you...listen

Tried my luck on the road to fame
Never found that star to shine
In skies I thought I would

Wish I knew back then what I know now
Might have gone another road
Have found another dream

M8 (softly) Listen...listen...listen
And you'll be what you want to be
Go just where you want to go
Your life, so young and free
